Rent the Rock Barn

ROCK BARN EVENT RENTAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

Welcome to the Cherokee County Historical Society's Rock Barn and thank you for selecting it for your event. In order to maintain this historic structure, you must adhere to the following rules and regulations. Except for extraordinary circumstances, use of the Rock Barn is limited to members in good standing of the Historical Society and is considered a member entitlement.

Fees for use are applied to operations and maintenance of the facility:

1. The Cherokee County Historical Society must approve all applications for use of the Rock Barn. An application must be submitted to the Cherokee County Historical Society along with the nonrefundable rental fee and membership to secure the date of use.
2. The Board of Directors reserves the right to refuse approval of use of facility to any persons when it deems use would not be in the best interest of the Historical Society.
3. Applicant agrees that actions taken during the usage period are the responsibility of the individual, business, or organization making application.
4. Applicant agrees that the Historical Society is held harmless in the event of any injury to both personal and property that may occur in connection with use.
5. Applicant acknowledges that any damage to the Rock Barn will be the liability of the individual, business, or organization approved for use. Applicant agrees that in the event damage to the Rock Barn property is incurred by renter in excess of their deposit, the Rock Barn insurance deductible must be met. Deductible is $1000. A police report will be filed in the event of damage to the Rock Barn.
6. Applicant agrees not to exceed 180 occupants in the building at any one time.
7. Applicant agrees that there will be no smoking inside the Rock Barn.
8. Applicant agrees that any and all equipment rentals come from our preferred vendor, Party Time Sales and Rental in Jasper (<http://www.partytimerents.com> or 706.253.9777). All deliveries and pickups of equipment will need to be on the day of your event. If delivery and pickup times are outside of your event day, you MUST get approval from the Historical Society before scheduling.
9. Applicant agrees that all persons and vehicles associated with use will vacate the Rock Barn by 12 Midnight.
10. Applicant agrees to leave the facility in the condition found. A checklist is provided and MUST be left at the Rock Barn for CCHS to verify. Failure to comply with any of the items will result in forfeiture of the damage/cleaning deposit. Damage/cleaning deposit will be returned within 10 days subject to favorable inspection of the premises after event.
11. Applicant agrees not to permanently mar walls, ceilings, signs with nail holes or adhesives and if items presently hanging on walls are taken down, they must be returned to their position after the event.
12. Applicant wishing to serve alcohol agrees to the following guidelines:
 - a) The applicant must hire ONE certified law enforcement officer from the City of Canton Police, who is to be present outside the Rock Barn for the duration of the function. (Tom Priest, City of Canton Police Department at 770.720.4883) The applicant is responsible for paying the officer and must provide proof of the security hired prior to the rental.

13. Applicant agrees to pay all dues and/or fees associated with usage of the Rock Barn no later than 30 days prior to rental. It is mandatory that all fees for usage be paid before event, no exceptions made.

14. Applicant agrees to share these rules and regulations with anyone hired for event including caterers, disc jockeys, parking valet, etc. Applicant must notify the person responsible for cleaning that they must complete the checklist.

15. Parking is limited on the facility and applicant agrees that attendees will not block streets & private driveways or park in unauthorized areas. Any parking off the facility's grounds is the applicant's responsibility. For large functions, valet parking is recommended. If you require the Canton Elementary School parking, you MUST call them at 770.720.6100 to make sure that the parking lot will be available.

16. Applicant agrees to replace any chairs @ $30.00 and any tables @ $100.00 in the event that there is any damage. Inventory will be taken before and after any event.
